

Common Dangers Faced by Families with Special Needs

1. Once the parents are gone, who will take over guardianship for their child with special needs?
2. Who is going to care for my loved one when we are gone?
3. What happens when the bus stops coming? Will there be day programs for my child or will I now have to stay home and no longer work outside the home?
4. Not all attorneys know how to properly set up a special needs trust. How do we find the right attorney to work with?
5. How do I secure benefits for my child with special needs?
6. We hear about budget cuts all the time. What is going to happen to my child's services?
7. How do I find resources for my child?
8. How do I fund my child's future?
9. Procrastination has taken control of us and we cannot seem to get our plans in place. How can an advocate help me?
10. How do parents feel when they themselves are aging and they are no longer in control of their special needs child?
